

ARTIST CV

Adelaide/Norwood based artist, Deborah Smalley, draws in ink and colours with watercolour. Basically self-taught, her artwork is inspired by flawed beauty, the buildings, streetscapes and rooflines located near her, and people with character.

Contact

Deborah Smalley
Norwood SA 5067
debsweetp@gmail.com
instagram.com/deborahsweetp

Solo Exhibitions

- Wabi Sabi
Sunday November 31st 2021, 1 day Pop-up
The Australasian, Goolwa, SA
- Ichi-go Ichi-e
Sunday 31st June 2022, 1 day Pop-up
The Australasian, Goolwa, SA
- Sgeidse
Saturday 3rd December 2022 until Sunday 29th January 2023
South Coast Regional Art Centre, Goolwa, SA

Group Exhibitions

- Art on Parade
Through April 2023, Monday to Friday, 830am to 5pm
Norwood Town Hall Foyer, Norwood, SA

Workshops

- Sgeidse – introduction to plein air sketching and watercolour
Tuesday 17th January 2023 10am – 4pm
South Coast Regional Art Centre, Goolwa, SA

Commissions

Private commissions accepted since 2021.
Medium: ink pen and watercolour.
Copyright for all commissions has remained with the artist.

Art Education

- 1998 Advanced Diploma in Graphic Design and Advertising (Croydon TAFE)
- 2021 Introduction to Watercolour (Adelaide Central School of Art)
- 2021 Portrait and Identity (Adelaide Central School of Art)

Organisations

- 2020 Adelaide Urban Sketchers (Adelaide chapter of Urban Sketchers organisation)